

Bio:

Haji Basim is a keynote and motivational speaker known for inspiring listeners to delve deeper into their relationship with themselves and gain more clarity of their purpose in life. Haji delivers insightful and passion filled stories and teaching from his unique Life Journey. Haji has traveled the world sitting at the feet of spiritual teachers of many cultures gathering their wisdom and teaching, and translating them into relatable and uplifting talks. Haji is an internationally recognized keynote speaker and has done presentations in various places such as Agape Int'l spiritual center, Bali Pecha Kucha, Unity of North Atlanta, Bali Spirit Festival, and the Adelaide Fringe festival in Australia. He has also featured several guest appearances on CBS News.

Haji Basim is also an Int'l award-winning, multi-instrumentalist, and songwriter who has traveled across the world playing in spiritual centers, theatres, sacred and spiritual yoga festivals. He is credited for creating a spiritual upbeat genre called Urban Folk that integrates several styles such as Folk, Soul, Flamenco, Bluegrass, Indian Ragas and Bossa Nova. Haji Basim has also served in various musically related roles, such as minister of music at a spiritual center in Charlotte NC and also as a music teacher. Haji Basim studied music in India where he learned to play the Sitar. Over the years Haji has also learned to play a total of 11 other instruments with the Guitar, Banjo, Ukulele, and Sitar just to name a few. He also has several years' experience in teaching meditation from his travels to various Ashrams temples and meditation centers across the globe.

HAJI BASIM

Motivational Speaker
Minister of Music

Offerings:

MOTIVATIONAL SPEAKER

Haji delivers insightful and passion filled stories and teaching from his unique Life Journey. Haji has traveled the world sitting at the feet of spiritual teachers of many cultures and faiths, gathering their wisdom and teachings, and translating them into relatable and uplifting talks.

MUSICAL GUEST

As an award-winning internationally touring multi-instrumentalist and singer-songwriter, Haji has shared his insightful and uplifting music with Spiritual Centers, Theaters, and Festivals the world over. Haji has also served as Minister of Music of Center for Spiritual Living C.O.L.O.R.S in Charlotte, Nc.

SITAR MEDITATION HOLISTIC CONCERT (After Service Workshop)

Haji Basim also doubles as a sacred sound artist. With his array of sacred mantras and instruments from around the world such as the Sitar and Bansuri flute and harmonium. Basim creates a tapestry of healing and introspective music that captivate his audiences and provides an opportunity meditation and for participation through kirtans (group singing of the names of God)

Testimonials:

He is a true light in this world. I am overfilled with love right now, just being in his presence. I love his music I love his soul and I love the spirit of his talk this morning! Rev Renee Leboa / co-pastor Center of Spiritual Living Charlotte

It was a treat to have Haji Speak to our congregation this morning. His light peace and spirit shined bright as he shared stories and lessons from his life and world travels. Haji Also has such healing and soul in his voice. We were all blown away by his passion and songs. Rev Karen Lindvig / Senior minister of Seattle Unity

Partial Client List:

Contact:

(404)957-4638
Info@HajiBasim.com
www.HajiBasim.com

-  Facebook.com/HajiBasim
-  Youtube.com/HajiBasim
-  Twitter.com/HajiBasim
-  Instagram.com/HajiBasimmusic